

Campus News -
Dec 1

Attention all Seniors! The Junior Professional Assistant Examination, for which Seniors have applied, will be given on Saturday morning, December 3rd, at 8:30 a.m. in Sage Hall. Each applicant will receive an official notice from the Civil Service Commission. The forms which are sent to candidates should be filled out completely if possible before going to the examination. It is recommended that no material be taken to the examination other than a pen, pencil, and the necessary forms.

The Vocational Office has <sup>reminded us</sup> ~~announced~~ that one of the very newest professions for women is service with the armed forces. On Monday, December 5th, at 4 o'clock, Major Eleanore C. Sullivan of the Regular Army will speak to Smith students in the Conference Hall of the Alumnae House. Her subject will be "The Army as a Career for Women". She will discuss the requirements, the training, and the duty for college graduates in the Regular Army. She will also speak of the possibility of holding reserve commissions. Members of the WAC serve in areas throughout the world. Students of all classes who are interested in knowing about service with the armed forces, particularly the army, are urged to attend.

An important vocational lecture will be given on Wednesday, December 7th, at five o'clock in the Conference Hall of the Alumnae House. The topic is Graduate Study. The lecture will be given by Miss Meribeth E. Cameron, the academic dean of Mt. Holyoke College. All members of the senior and junior classes who are considering graduate study are urged to attend this meeting. Miss Cameron will be glad to answer questions following her talk.

#####

The Christman concert of the Smith College Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Iva Dee Hiatt, will be given this year on Saturday, December 3rd, in John M. Greene Hall at 5 p.m., as a joint recital will the Amherst College Glee Club., under the direction of Henry Mishkin. Soloists will be ~~Sank~~ Paul Marier of Amherst, and Marie-Jeanne Laurent, 1952, of Smith. The Smith College Chamber Singers will also sing a separate group of carols and folk-songs.

The two glee clubs will open with Vittoria's "O Magnum Mysterium", and Healey Willan's "The Three Kings". The second group, by the Smith Glee Club, will include the "O ~~Sakur~~ Salutaris" of Capletm Byrd's "Sing Ye to the Lord", and Verdi's "Laudi alla Verginé". The third group, by the Smith College Chamber Singers, will include Hungarian ~~folksongs~~, French carolsm and an English madrigal. The entire Smith Glee Club will then join in three German carols. After the intermission, the Amherst Glee Club will sing two sacred choruses, and three romantic choruses, by Mendelssohn, Schubert, and Brahms. They will also sing some English and German ~~folks~~ folksongs. Finally, the joint choirs will give Warlock's "Balulalow" and Vaughn Williams' "Wassail Song".

The Smith College Glee Club, with the Amherst College Glee Club as guest artists, will sing over the National Broadcasting System ~~over the~~ New England stations on Sunday, December 4th, from 4:30 to 5 p.m. This will be the fifth in this year's series of "Songs from New England Colleges", a program sponsored by the Monsanto Chemical Company of Boston. On this broadcast, Miss Marie-Jeanne Laurent, will sing <sup>with the accompaniment of the two glee clubs,</sup> the soprano solo for "Bulalulow", and Miss Gloria Pasquini, a Senior from Springfield, Mass., will play a special organ accompaniment for this song. The entire program will be directed by Miss Iva Dee Hiatt.

#####

More music news on campus concerns the concert to be given this Sunday evening, December 4th, at 8:30 p.m. in Sage Hall, by the Smith College Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Marion DeRonde. The program will include "The <sup>o</sup>verture to Iphigenia in Aulis" by Gluck, a Suite by Purcell, and The Beethoven Symphony in C Minor, opus 67.

The third concert in the Smith College Concert course will present the great soprano Ebe Stignani, on Tuesday evening, December 6th, at 8 p.m. in John M. Greene Hall. Miss Stignani's exciting concerts this year have been greeted with ovations that have seldom been equalled. The program that she will offer to the Smith audience will brilliantly display her magnificent voice, prodigious in range and technique. Her dramatic gifts will be fully shown in selections from operas of all periods, demonstrating the most suave

The Swiss College also will give the National Club an event which will take over the National Association of Music and the National Association of Music, December 2nd, from 11:30 to 5 p.m. This will be the first in this year's series of "Songs from New England" College", a program sponsored by the National Company of Boston. On this program, Miss Marie-Louise Levent, will sing the "Songs from New England" and Miss Marie Levent, a member of the National will play a special organ accompaniment for this song.
The entire program will be directed by Miss Marie Levent.

One music hour on Sunday morning the concert to be given this Sunday evening, December 1st, at 8:00 p.m. in State Hall, by the Swiss College Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Marion Levent.
The program will include "The overture to Don Quixote" in G major, by Gluck, a suite by Tchaikovsky, and the Swiss Symphony in A minor, Op. 11.
The third concert in the Swiss College
Concert series will present the great soprano
Sigmund, on Tuesday evening, December 2nd, at 8 p.m.
in John A. Hanson Hall. Miss Sigmund's vocal concert this year have been greeted with ovations that have seldom been equalled. The program that she will offer to the Swiss audience will brilliantly display her magnificent voice, which is pure and beautiful. Her repertoire fills all the fields in which a singer can excel.

4.

effects of bel canto and the most thrilling bravura passages. She will sing first three widely different arias of Handel, and then will go on to three of the most difficult and rarely sung examples of the Golden Age of Italian opera, by Picinni, Sarti, and Cavalli. A tremendous scene from Mozart's "Don Giovanni", will close this first section of the program. After the intermission, Miss Stignani, will turn to superb examples of modern vocal style, in works by Respighi and Debussy. In conclusion, she will return to the grand Italian style of almost incredible virtuosity, in selections from Bellini and Rossini.

#####

Sunday, December 4th at 7 p.m. at College Vespers in John M. Greene Hall, the college chaplain William Graham Cole will speak. He will take as his subject, "A Tale of Two Cities".

#####

From December 7th to 10th, the Department of Theater of Smith College will present its second production, "The Young and the Fair" by Richard Nash, a play about life in a girls' school. Tickets are now available to subscribing patrons. The box office is open daily from 11 to 1 and from 4 to 5:45.

#####

...of the most thrilling dramas
...the will sing first three widely different
...of Handel, and then will go on to three of the ...most difficult and rarely sung examples of the Golden
...age of Italian opera, by Pizzini, Jolly, and Cavalli.
...A tremendous scene from Mozart's "Don Giovanni", will ...close this first section of the program. After the ...intermission, Miss Stinson, will turn to more examples of modern vocal style, in songs by Mendelssohn and Debussy.
In conclusion, she will return to the great Italian style of almost incredible virtuosity, in selections from Bellini and Rossini.

Friday

Sunday, December 14th at 7:30 p.m. at College Vespers in John W. Green Hall, the college choir will sing
...and will sing. He will take as his subject,
"A Tale of Two Cities".

Friday

From December 15th to 20th, the Department of Theater of Saint College will present its annual production, "The Young and the Brave" by Howard Lang.
A play about life in a girls' school. Tickets are now available to subscribers. The box office is open daily from 11 to 1 and from 6 to 8:30.

Friday